There are a lot of moving parts to keep track of when you own and operate a business. Keeping up with the tax law changes may be the most difficult for many owners. In this tax update, we'll discuss both Federal and Montana activity, along with other issues you could potentially be dealing with.

Key takeaways:

- A brief discussion on the current 2021 Federal tax law in comparison to 2020
- A discussion on the activity in the United States Congress that could change the tax law in 2022
- A review of the Montana Tax Simplification changes that will occur in 2022 and 2024
- A few issues to be aware of when working in other states or selling product to customers in other states
- Withholding requirements for having employees working or living in other states
- Other common tax issues

Presenters:

David Gilmer is a certified public accountant, accredited in business valuations, a shareholder, and the director of tax operations in a Montana-based public accounting firm.
